About

As soon as Lisa Warren started playing her harp, she instantly felt like a brand-new person mentally and physically. It's because of this that she shares her music passion with the world to help others feel relaxed and at peace. Her angelic and tranquilizing playing can be heard in her original compositions and also cover songs. She has released two original albums "Northern Lights and Awakening", a Christmas album "A Serenity Harp Christmas", a cover song E.P "Angel", and an original single called "Faraway"

"Faraway" was penned by Lisa and veteran producer Randy Moore, and is expected to turn heads and ears at radio.
